

Links for Current Tutors:

These links are from other ESL programs and provide many excellent suggestions for tutors.

<http://www.joneslibrary.org/esl/tutors/tutors.html>

<http://www.joneslibrary.org/esl/pdf/convpartnerguide4.pdf>

<http://www.joneslibrary.org/esl/info/adult.html> (online sites for students and tutors)

<https://talktime.wordpress.com/>

<http://www.proliteracyednet.org/articles.asp?mcid=2&cid=23>

Websites Recommended at Roundtable Presentation by Sue Meeker:

*<http://www.eslgold.com>

*<http://www.usingenglish.com/teachers/lesson-plans/level-beginner.html> (good for printable lesson plans, worksheets, etc)

teacher favorites for handouts

<http://americanenglish.state.gov>

<http://www.elcivics.com/worksheets/esl-worksheets.html> (free printable worksheets, lessons on government, lesson plans, vocabulary)

Listening/Audio/Independent Online Work

*<http://www.esl-lab.com/> (Very cool! Audio snippets online with related activities!)

*www.dailyesl.com

*<http://www.englishclub.com> (Good for independent learning, audio, printables, reading passages, vocab, quizzes)

www.myenglishpages.com

<http://www.ello.org> (English Language Listening Lab Online)

Good Printable Worksheets and Handouts

*<http://www.englishforeveryone.org/> (printable worksheets)

<http://www.usingenglish.com/handouts/> (worksheets/quizzes)

<http://www.eslflow.com> (good printable worksheets and lesson plans)

*www.learn-english-today.com (also good for online independent practice)

Vocabulary and Word Lists

*www.manythings.org (printable lists on any subject)

*<http://www.eslgold.com> (also under “General”)

<http://www.elcivics.com/worksheets/esl-worksheets.html>

News for ESL

www.newsforyouonline.com (good for independent work)

*<http://www.breakingnewsenglish.com>

<http://learningenglish.voanews.com>

(Voice of America Special English—2 levels of audio stories accompanied by written transcripts)

(British)

<http://www.newsinlevels.com> (good for reading, but British accent on audios)

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/worldservice/learningenglish> (high intermediate to advanced reading passages, British)

Pronunciation

*<http://www.soundsofenglish.org> (Great!)

Videos for pronunciation:

<http://www.youtube.com/user/JenniferESL>

Pronunciation lessons

http://www.youtube.com/results?search_query=dave%20sconda&sm=1

Pronunciation lessons for individual sounds

More Specific

Grammar:

<http://www.ego4u.com> (English grammar lessons and exercises)

Idioms/Slang:

<http://www.ezslang.com>

<http://www.idiomconnection.com/> (Good as a student resource, can look up idiom alphabetically or in subject-related lessons)

Holidays:

<http://www.eslholidaylessons.com>

Teacher Info/Articles/Resources

*<http://humanities.byu.edu/elc/Teacher/TeacherGuideMain.html>

Detailed lesson outlines, plans

<http://www.manythings.org/voa/words.htm#K>

List of 1500 common English words with definitions http://www.youtube.com/results?search_query=language%20experience%20approach&sm=1

Language experience approach videos, demos

<http://eslchallenges.blogspot.com> “ESL Challenges” blog, ideas for adults

<http://www.cal.org/caela/> (good links under “Instructional Tools”)

Additional Links added since Meeting

<http://www.thetimesinplainenglish.com/wp/>

<http://www.antimoon.com/how/pronunc-soundsipa.htm> (direct link to IPA with audio examples)

<http://www.uiowa.edu/~c07w135e/ipa/ipa.html#> (IPA with how to make sounds and exercises)